ATTACKS & SPELLCASTING

CP / SP / EP / GP / PP

Traveller's Clothes, Book, Crowbar, Ink, Ink Pen, Lamp, 10x Oil, 10x Parchment, Robe, Tinderbox

EQUIPMENT

1. I'm old enough to know better, experienced enough to do it anyway, and tired enough to complain about it. I meet most things with dry humour and a healthy dose of cynicism.
2. I get on well enough with ordinary folk, especially people who remind me of home. Ask if I'm all right, though, and you'll get a joke for an answer.

PERSONALITY TRAITS

Responsibility. Gods, governments, and commanders are all very good at explaining why someone else should bear the cost of their decisions. I make my own calls now. If someone has to pay for them, I won't pretend the responsibility belongs to anyone else.

IDEALS

Home. I still dream of retiring in the village where I grew up. I tell myself I need to make it safe before I return. There is always another threat to deal with, and perhaps that's just as well — I wouldn't know what to do with myself if I ever got there.

BONDS

1. I cannot leave well enough alone. I insist on doing things my way, ignore advice I don't fancy, and struggle to trust anyone else with control — even when they're better suited to the task.
2. I hide behind the job. When things get personal, I make a joke, change the subject, or find the next piece of work. It's easier to be useful than to work out who I am without a purpose.
